

Joya Tynes

Medicare educator, caregiver advocate, community speaker — Hampton Roads, VA

About Joya

Joya Tynes brings warmth, clarity, and a community-first lens to Medicare education. She helps audiences cut through jargon — covering enrollment windows, plan choices, caregiver support, and purpose-led aging — so attendees leave feeling informed, calm, and ready to take the next step.

Signature Talks

All Things Medicare	Plain-language overview of Parts A, B, C, D and how to choose.
Turning 65 Roadmap	What to do 6, 3, and 1 month before your 65th birthday.
Caregiver Medicare Support	Helping adult children + spouses navigate a parent's coverage.
Enrollment Periods & Plan Reviews	AEP, OEP, SEP — when to act and what to bring.
Purpose + Legacy (keynote)	Non-insurance keynote on showing up for your people.

Formats

- 30 / 45 / 60 minute formats
- Q&A segment included
- Optional handouts
- RSVP support available

Audiences

Churches • Senior living communities • Civic groups & non-profits • Employer / HR lunch-and-learns • Public libraries • City & local agencies

What attendees take home

- A clear understanding of how Medicare works (no sales pitch)
- A printable checklist tailored to the talk
- Confidence to ask better questions of any agent or plan
- A path to a free 1:1 plan review if they want one

Book Joya

hello@joyatynes.com

(757) 555-0100

joyatynes.com/speaker-kit

Education-first. Joya is a licensed insurance agent. Information shared in talks is educational and not endorsed by CMS or any carrier.